The merchants and bankers of New-York are requested to attend a meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce, on Wednesday, June 22, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing the repeal or modification of the Gold Bill recently passed by Congress, which has paralyzed the business of the city.

Mr. MARSHALL explained the object of the meeting—the passage of the new Gold Bill had paralyzed business altogether; merchants did not know whether they were allowed to give or take checks for sterling exchange; the circulation of the bill—great experiments required time for their development; even in turning the course of a great river no one knew what could be accomplished.

Mr. BROWN, in his remarks, stated that the bill was a measure to take the circulation of the bill—great experiments required time for their development; even in turning the course of a great river no one knew what could be accomplished.

Mr. MORGAN, in his remarks, stated that the bill was a measure to take the circulation of the bill—great experiments required time for their development; even in turning the course of a great river no one knew what could be accomplished.
